Work

Contends that research is needed to test the validity of findings from mainstream societies when applied to indigenous communities. Sometimes these are also considered members of the immediate family, depending on an individual's specific relationship with them. The first is the necessity of considering how research on work—family relationships can be undertaken in different countries in ways that both capture and respect the influence of different values and accepted roles within each culture.

Work

The family can also be a source of conflict, including physical violence and emotional cruelty, for its own members.

CiteSeerX — Cultural Work
