The camel kneels at break of day To have his guide replace his load, Then rises up anew to take The desert road. So thou shouldst kneel at morning dawn That God may give thy daily care, Assured thaThe no load too great Will make thee bear. We believe this work is culturally important, and despite the imperfections, have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide.

Poem: The Kneeling Camel by Anna Temple Whitney

Else how canst thou tomorrow meet, With all tomorrow's work to do, If thou thy burden all the night Dost carry through? My soul, thou too shouldst to thy knees When daylight draweth to a close, And let thy Master lift thy load, And grant repose.
