The decision to become an escort or prostitute, whatever you call me was completely mine. There are many reasons and debates as to when, why or if a woman should have an abortion.

Moral dilemmas of feminism : prostitution, adultery, and abortion : Shrage, Laurie, 1953

No woman should be held with a stigma for undergoing the procedure.

Prostitution

The crux of the issue here is consistency.

Debra Satz (Stanford University): Publications

It might be argued that no one would freely chose to be a prostitute and that all people are coerced into doing so. In fact, she could be praised as a job creator as she would be creating at least one job while providing others.
