In which place we replenished our provisions, as with fowl and calves' flesh, also a variety of fruits named Battate, and sweet pineapples of singular goodness, and infinite other things which I pass over that I be not too long. Besides this, the captain told them that it was necessary that this cross should be placed on the summit of the highest mountain in their country, so that seeing it every day they might adore it, and that if they did thus, neither thunder, lightning, nor the tempest could do them hurt. Complete set of two hardbound volumes in a heavy red slipcase.

The king wished to detain us to supper, but we made our excuses and took leave of him. Our musketeers and crossbow-men fired for half an hour from a distance, but did nothing, since the bullets and arrows, though they passed through their shields made of thin wood, and perhaps wounded their arms, yet did not stop them. On Easter day at midnight, the Spanish captains mutinied against their Portuguese captain, but Magellan crushed the revolt, executing one of the captains and leaving another ashore when his ship left St.
