In addition to 25 above, note some examples that have been given before: 4 , 13 , 14 , and 21. Examples 8 , 9 , and 10 show the most typical correspondences, with a predicated theme in Norwegian and a single clause with an analogous theme in German see further section 5. She did it for that reason.

Introductory in Norwegian

<sup>1</sup>The restricted use of cleft constructions in German has been noted previously in studies that are not corpus-based; cf.
