Sociology and Beyond: The Limits of Loyalty, Asian Journal of Social Science

As with loyalty, conscientiousness and sincerity can be directed to unworthy objects, but conscientiousness and sincerity do not for that reason fail as virtues.

In

Nevertheless, though it may sometimes appear to allow for attributions of loyalty to the supposedly embedded values, our loyalty is primarily to the affiliational object or person, and not to the particular values that it instantiates.

6.1 Social Groups

To the extent that loyalty is seen as an adaptive sentiment, we may think that animals are capable of loyalty. Some argue that it is only to such that we can be loyal Ladd; Baron.
