As an anecdotal example of what I mean. He had a learning disability that was caught after the damage was done. It only gets worse from here if you do not set better boundaries and eliminate contact with him.

Manipulative Child Behavior

And the other son too. Instead, learn to tolerate their upset, which will in turn help them to tolerate their own. If multiple employees come forward together instead of just one person, all the better. If you have any evidence you can present, that's helpful.
