The most recent literature and data suggest there is an upward trend in Chinese exports to the LAC region, specifically in arms exports. Williams has worked with the Security Cooperation Office and has intimate knowledge in arm sales.

The Long Road to Arms Trade Transparency in Latin America

The region must realize that although arms trade transparency does not prevent all armed conflict, it is an undeniably positive step in combating illicit transfers, reducing international tensions, and alleviating violence.

The Long Road to Arms Trade Transparency in Latin America

Source: Pulsamérica Recent negotiations on a comprehensive Arms Trade Treaty have sparked hope for increased transparency in the regional and global arms trade, but these expectations must be tempered by an acknowledgement of the failures of previous attempts to elicit universal participation by the United Nations and the Organization of American States OAS. By and The Haitian police have implicated at least 20 Colombians in a suspected plot to assassinate the president. The OAS Transparency Convention and the U.
