From the start, he lived as close to Everest as a human being could. They will never have access to the contents prior to that time. Since then, there have been threats from flash contenders, like Anne Machin, in northwest China, but Everest is still rated highest, even though there have been arguments over exactly how high it is.

Tenzing Norgay and Everest's Sherpas

Being hardy rather than urbane, the Sherpas, both men and women, drew outdoor jobs. That feat earned Tenzing a rest from his career as a climber, which had been arduous, and plunged him into a new career, involving contracts, publicity, and politics, which is a good deal more lucrative but which puts him under another kind of strain.
