Metropolitan Hilarion: First of all, I would like to say that the sad events, which happened early this year in Kiev and which caused a bloodshed and death toll, have not made Ukrainian religious confessions to stay aside. War always left behind the latent seeds of hate and retribution. His efforts bore fruit and many became Christians; which also brought in persecutions.

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI on Interreligious dialogue

One needs to have the conviction that all other ways lead only to further violence, hatred and wars. The conference concluded with a very moving and spiritual Liturgy of Thanksgiving.
