10 Things You Need to Do After Your Wedding Is Over

But the good part about all this is that it's all inserted into a mostly charming and romantic story. So don't wait too long to complete this oh-so-important task; we suggest you and your partner block out some time on your calendars to take care of it as soon as your honeymoon is over.

'After the Wedding' Review

Will See 13 Won't See 11 After the Wedding Cast: Who are the actors? The whole story just felt a little directionless and a bit listless.

Review: After the Wedding

The characters are diverse and very likeable.

Review: After the Wedding

He feels a touch of survivor's guilt but manages to be an optimistic, sunny individual, eternally hoping for acceptance from his mother's upper-class white family and also waiting to meet his perfect soulmate, whom he will choose to marry as his mother and father did. Her sister Judith and her new husband have spent massive resources trying to track her down, only to fail, and her younger siblings, Benedict and Theresa, are determined to find Camilla, as a gift for Judith. Will she bond with her father? But Adrian also wants a romance like his parents had, and being married at gunpoint does not factor into that.

Review: After the Wedding

It turns out -- again, none of this is revelatory -- that the rich, efficient, almost God-like tycoon, Jorgen, is dying and that this is indeed his way of playing God: making sure that his wife and his kids have something to keep, something to live for, someone who can take care of them, after he is dead. Follows the director of an Indian orphanage on the verge of bankruptcy, who discovers that her organization is in contention to receive a large charitable donation from a wealthy American businesswoman, forcing her to travel to New York City, where she is confronted by a past she tried to forget.

10 Things You Need to Do After Your Wedding Is Over

She believes she's cursed, in a way, not to be loved because she abandoned her family for comfort and security when she was twelve.
