In the preface to the first edition, the editor announced: The following pages are chiefly designed for the use of those who have no previous knowledge of the Textual Criticism of the New Testament; but since the Author has endeavoured to embody in them the results of very recent investigations, he hopes that they may prove of service to more advanced students.

Introduction to the Textual Criticism of the Greek New Testament

The purpose of textual criticism is to restore as near as possible the words of the autograph. He asks the reader's indulgence for the annexed list of Addenda et Corrigenda, both by reason of the peculiar character of his work, and the remoteness of West Cornwall from Public Libraries. The main part of the work are descriptions of the manuscripts.
