Hadran

Typically early printed books and especially manuscripts. Of particular value to collectors as evidence of a very early form of the book. A-C, for example, would indicate a quarto volume composed of three signatures or gatherings of eight pages each for a total of 24 pages.

Seder Tefillah

Oblong folios are produced the same way but bound at the short edge, producing a book typically more than 14 inches deep. By the outset of the 19th century, the Jewish population in Vienna was growing and becoming increasingly prominent throughout Europe. Cooked or preserved vegetables are not suitable for Maror; therefore commercially prepared grated horseradish, which is packed in vinegar, may not be used for the mitzvah.
