This probably will mean a slight tweak to how it's presented, but ultimately this was always supposed to be a kind of outlet for sharing articles, books, and my thoughts about them, in the way I liked to think I did on Twitter when I was a regular addict uh, user of the site. Now, whether is oil at hand because imperatively demanded? Marginalia: Readers writing in Books, New Haven: Yale University Press, 2001. Would it not rather be traduit traduced which is the French synonym, or overzezet turned topsy-turvy which is the Dutch one? He who falls en homme ordinaire — from the mere slipping of his feet — is usually an object of sympathy; but all men tumble now and then, and this tumbling from high sticks is sure to provoke laughter.
