Evidence

Judicial Notice of Adjudicative Facts § 2203. The duty of the government not to hide evidence that could help your defense is a key element in helping your attorney to prepare the best possible defense against a criminal charge, but your attorney in turn must know what questions to ask to the prosecution to make sure that it follows that duty. What happens, though, if the government finds evidence that could be favorable to your defense that your attorney is not aware of? Rulings on Evidence § 2105.
