It is essential to health, that medicines should never be taken but when necessary, and never without the best advice, in regard to the commencement, which ought not to be too long delayed, otherwise much benefit cannot be expected from them, and also with respect to nature or sort, quantity, and continuance. Winds may be divided into constant, or those which blow always in the same direction; periodical, or those which blow half a year in one direction, and half a year in a contrary direction; these are called monsoons; and variable, which are subject to no rules.
