BRINGING NATURE HOME — rakesprogress

The chef cites the novel coronavirus pandemic as the reason behind the closure. In this new book, 100 20th-Century Gardens and Landscapes from the Twentieth Century Society, edited by Susannah Charlton and Elain Harwood, outstanding British garden and landscape design since 1914 is celebrated and discussed not only as a space where radical ideas on layout and planting could be tested and formed but also landscapes where new ideas on how public parks and public spaces were designed or repurposed.

William Hogarth, A Rake's Progress

He sits on the lap of one who caresses him with one hand whilst robbing him of his watch with the other.

Workers at A Rake's Progress Allege Spike Gjerde's Restaurant Had a Toxic Culture

Scent takes you to the past, triggering so many memories and emotions, but as we engage in more scents, it connects your brain with what you are feeling, what you feel informs what your body is needing to sooth, ground or support you. The garden had the sweetest smelling old giant of a jasmine plant that filled the air with its perfume. When Anne shows up, Tom declares that he is now unworthy of her love.

rakesprogress magazine

Tom wins, thanks to the benign influence of Anne.
