Stoning Adulterers

Any being that is imperfect falls short of what it ought to be, and such a situation implies the actual existence of the being which is the ultimate perfect good. Claims that the Old Testament writers extracted from legends are in conflict to the writing practices of these times. I am sure that collectively we will eventually come up with a satisfactory answer, so that at least each of us is convinced that he or she now knows how to deal with the question from now on.
